

RESUME

Marguerite A. Bobb
Nom De Plume: Lee Maracle

Education

- 1968 graduated from High School - academic-technical program
Argyle Secondary, North Vancouver
special skills: drama (4 years) and typing.
- 1973 Native Studies Program and 1st year college,
Vancouver Community College,
Langara Campus
- 1972 Film repair and maintenance: San Francisco Newsreel,
San Francisco, CA - (2 week course)
- * 1973 Life Histories Writing Program,
L.S.M. Publications,
Instructor: Dr. Donald Barnett, Professor of Anthrology
Simon Fraser University. (3 month course)
- 1981 Claims assessment and calculation course,
Canada Manpower,
Unemployment Insurance Commission Fast Flow Unit.
- 1988 Vancouver Community College
completed first and second year university transfer program, major English and Sociology.
- * 1989 Script writing course: Inside Stories
Canadian Broadcasting Corporation,
Ken Chubb, Instructor. (one month program)
- 1989 Simon Fraser University,
3rd year, major sociology.
~~4th year courses as well.~~

All transcripts for VCC, Langara and S.F.U. provided upon request.

Work Experience

- 1968
1970 Elegant Parlor and River Queen Night Club, Employers, Tommy Chong and Ronnie Small, respectively.
position: waitress.

- 1970
- 1972 B. C. Native Youth Association,
Canada Manpower Youth employment program
Position: Editor, native youth newsletter,
Co-ordinator, B. C. N. Y. A. summer employment programs.
- 1972
- 1974 Native Information, Counselling and Referral Centre
Co-ordinator,
Employer, B. C. Association of Non-Status Indians,
Fred House, president; J. Lannigan, treasurer.
- 1974
- 1975 Co-ordinator and fund-raiser for the Native People's Friendship Delegation to the People's Republic of China,
Delegation Leader, Shirley Klyne llb. and Joan Carter,
New Democratic Party Candidate, Okanagan.
- 1981 Unemployment Insurance Commission, Fast Flow Unit
position: Claims assessor, clerk 2.
Employer, Diane Anderson.
- 1984
- 1986 Synala Housing Co-operative
Co-ordinator of Development of Synala Housing Co-op.
Employer: Dennis Maracle
- 1989 Part-time Writer-In-Residence,
Victoria University,
International Native Writing Program,
Co-ordinator, Jeannette Armstrong.

Volunteer Work

N.A.R.P. newsletter, corresponding secretary, bookkeeper.
Vancouver Indian Centre, secretary of board of directors.
Think Indian Project, curriculum developer.
Native People's Friendship Delegation to the People's Republic of China, scriptisist for audio-visual slide-tape presentations in various schools, Indian Bands, community groups.
Indian Homemakers of B. C., journalist
Notes On The Native Struggle, journalist, short story-writer.
United Native Nations, Board of Director
L'Uma Native Housing Society, developed Operations Manual.
Canadian National Association of Friendship Centres, Coach of Vancouver Indian Centre native youth track and field team.
Native Student Union, tutor - essay writing and creative writing.
Vancouver School Board Race-relations committee, advisor on race relations for committee.

Women's Studies program, Vancouver Vocational Institute,
"Undoing Racism" workshop.

Conducted classes in Native Literature at the following colleges: Douglas College, Vancouver Community College, and New College, University of Toronto.

Other skills: Native art, crafts, singing, and dancing instructor. Familiar with Native traditions, learning styles and history. Story-teller, traditional and modern.