

RAVEN COURTNEY is of Ojibway descent, a graduate of Spirit Song Native Theatre. Raven is currently working on her one women full length play "IRON HOUSE". A play about a First Nations women in prison and how she deals with the prison system in her daily life within the walls of isolation. IRON HOUSE will be in production in early 1994.