Mike MacDonald is a video artist and photographer of Micmac ancestry ~~who~~ who lives and works in British Columbia. MacDonald's subject matter ~~has been~~ is Native Peoples and the environment. ~~and the~~ The works in this show deal with totem poles and sustainability. He uses mirror ~~print~~ or reverse printing and multiple shots of a single pole to add dimension to the ~~new~~ pictures.

~~All of the~~ The works in the show are from the Gitksan Indian Territory near Hazelton B.C. and shows some of the oldest totem poles still standing in their original environment.
